

Bird watching tours

At the north of Tonle Sap lake, Prek Toal is a fabulous place for seeing wildlife and birds b December - March. We have experienced guides who can help identify the dozens of species of birds to be found here.

To the North West is Ang Trapang Thmor Bird reserve which is one of only of a few World sites to see the Extremely rare Sarus Crane in Season (December through April)

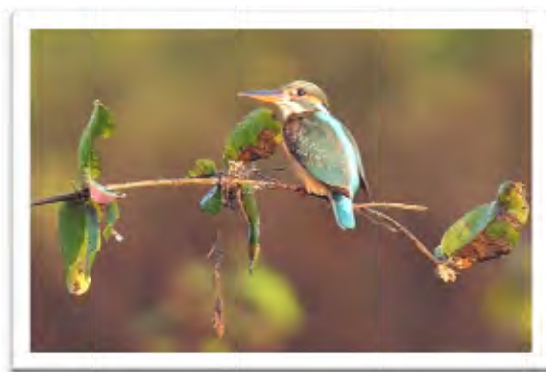

PT Prek Toal Early Bird Tour

Early start for the drive to Chong Khneas floating village; where we board a boat to take us across the great Tonle Sap Lake to Prek Toal village. Early in the season we can take a boat right into the heart of the mangroves to a tree top hide. We can see the thousands of storks and other birds nesting in the trees. As the water levels drop during the season; we see the birds fishing on the lake in vast numbers. It is one of the wonders of South East Asia.

<- group at hide

During the main fishing season (late December and early January) the Bird sanctuary can be closed at short notice while fishing is in progress. We will refund your costs or make other arrangements

Please note prices may be subject to change for 2009- 10 season if bird sanctuary fees increase

Start 4 to 5 am and return 12 to 2 pm (varies through the season)

Price includes all car and boat transfers; guides, breakfast, lunch and Prek Toal sanctuary fee.

ATT Ang Trapang Thmor: Sarus Crane reserve

This is an exciting tour which gives an opportunity to see some of the world rarest birds in their natural environment. There are only two sites in the World where these magnificent birds can be seen.

We drive to the Reservoir of Ang Trapang Thmor which is 3 hours by road from Siem Reap. The vast reservoir was built by the Khmer Rouge in 1975 at the cost of countless lives during its construction.

We arrange for a bird guide; who directs us to the best spots to see the Cranes. They can be seen in their hundreds in the reservoir or out in the rice fields.
